

Press Clipping

Property Australia magazine
February, 2007

Sovereign Hills construction commences

NSW: Preliminary earthwork construction has commenced on the $1 billion Sovereign Hills master-planned community at Port Macquarie, on the NSW North Coast. The 15-year project will include an entertainment precinct, business centre, community centre, child care facilities and a regional Catholic education campus. The next stage of construction will involve the community centre, which is expected to begin in March 2007.